A dream imagined from a garage space in kolkata in the year 1985 spread its wings to 30 plus branch offices across all states in India. Mr Shyamal Karmakar, a young and enthusiastic man with indomitable urge & passion realized from the core of his heart to create opportunities for numerous other unemployed youths in the country. This is what motivated him to keep the foundation of this unique endeavor which he started with a meagre capital of ₹ 350 in the year 1985. The 39-year legacy has now a business turnover of ₹ 951 crores with a manpower strength of 38000 approximately. Our employment target is 50000 manpower in 2025.

Under the able and dynamic leadership of Mr Shyamal Karmakar, the Managing Director of the Company, S&IB is an established brand-name today. The Company has transformed itself into a multi-business enterprise with a diversified business portfolio within the period of time.

S&IB Services is a one-stop solution provider to every requirement in the arena of Integrated Facility Management. Its services include Total Security Solutions, Total Facility Management, Electronic Surveillance System, Banking support services, Treasury Management, Transportation and logistics, Event Management, Fire Safety and Disaster Management, Manpower Outsourcing & Payroll Management, Repair & Maintenance, Electro-mechanical services, Property Management, AMC Management, Company Lease Car, Mobile Tower Operations and Maintenance, Civil Maintenance, Warehouse Management and so on.

For long-term survival in this cutthroat business ecosystem, "Never compromise with business ethics, always be patient. Every challenge is an opportunity to learn and grow."- Shyamal Karmakar, Managing Director Shreyasee Karmakar, Director of S&IB Services is the second-generation business woman who is now an integral part of the business and is aiming to continue and grow the legacy which was once created by her father almost four decades ago. Positive attitude towards life is her biggest strength. No matter how difficult the situation is, she keeps calm and takes decisions strategically. Her mantra to win at workplace by connecting personally with her employees, who in turn, render services meeting client's expectations. She is observant and a good listener. Shreyasee believes in team work and often encourages her employees to counter her decisions. Her active participation in the company resulted in manifold growth in the recent years despite adverse situation caused by the pandemic.
